13,000+ recruiters 6,000+ firm locations FREE access to the latest online listings The Directory of Executive and Professional Recruiters, otherwise known as the Red Book, is the premier junior, senior and executive-level job seekers guide for researching and contacting recruiting firms that will best facilitate their career goals.Five easy-to-search indexes include: 84 Job Placement Areas (type of job) 120+ Industries (type of company)) 400+ Individual Recruiter Specialties) Geographical (by city and state)) A-Z Listing

Most individuals were never formally taught thinking skills and, as a result, are using processes that were developed during childhood to reach decisions and solve problems. Thus, in an era of knowledge explosion, organizational performance accountability, and rapid change caused by technology, leaders and managers are trying to succeed using thinking patterns developed before they were twelve years old. Power Thinking offers leaders the information they need to evaluate their current thinking proficiencies, determine areas for improvement, and enhance their thinking skills. The book includes the Yale Assessment of Thinking, a standardized assessment measure that enables readers to determine their abilities in the cognitive domains found to be crucial to being an outstanding leader.

The paperback edition of The Directory of Executive Recruiters is a quick but thorough reference for career changers and job-seekers to contact search firms that match their areas of expertise. Using the same database as the Corporate Edition above, it concentrates on North American firms. Internal information such as firm revenues, number of recruiters, etc., is not included. Introductory material helps guide job-seeker expectations with strategies for using recruiters as part of overall career management. "Anyone looking to turn headhunters' heads should have a copy of the Directory." --William Flanagan, Senior Editor, Forbes

Offers advice for candidates and clients, and lists both retainer and contingency recruiting firms

Discusses such strategies as packaging skills for higher-level jobs, skipping rungs on the career ladder, networking on and off the job, and negotiating compensation packages

Known since 1971 as the "Red Book," The Directory of Executive Recruiters has been called "the bible" of the industry by CNBC and Sylvia Porter. It is the largest continuously updated recruiter database in the world. This jumbo hardcover edition is specially designed to help corporate buyers of search services make informed decisions on which recruiting firm would best suit their hiring needs. It is also useful to search providers for competitive intelligence, acquisitions, and partnerships. The Directory lists over 8,000 offices of 5,700 search firms in the U.S., Canada and Mexico and contain detailed information on each firm: street addresses, phone numbers, fax numbers, e-mail and web addresses, plus function and industry specialties. It is comprehensively indexed by function, industry, specialty and geographic location. The unique specialty index has 565 niche categories with the names and company affiliations of over 14,000 recruiters. In addition, the Corporate Edition reports firm revenues, number of recruiters and year founded and lists full contact information for international branch offices. It also contains a key contact index. Introductory pages give expert advice to corporate hirers on choosing and using executive search firms. "The Directory of Executive Recruiters is one of the most popular reference books in libraries nationwide." -- Lynne M Oliver, Reference Librarian, Morris County (NJ) Library.
